

Radiation Research Society Officer Nominations

The Radiation Research Society invites nominations of Full (including ECI and Sponsored Faculty) or Emeritus Members for the following positions: the office of Vice-President-Elect with Medicine being the current rotation for 2020/2021, Councilor-Biology, Councilor-Chemistry, Councilor-Medicine, Councilor-Physics, and Councilor-Epidemiology. The terms of the positions will begin at the Annual Meeting in October 2020. Per the Constitution (Article V. 1): A person is nominated by the Membership if he/she is named by at least 10 members. Any member may nominate for any office.

Vice-President-Elect

Per the Constitution (Article IV.8-9),

8. The Vice-President-Elect shall be elected for a term of one year, at the conclusion of which he/she shall automatically assume the office of Vice-President/President-Elect. The Vice-President/President-Elect shall serve a term of one year, at the conclusion of which he/she shall automatically assume the office of President. The President shall serve a term of one year, at the conclusion of which he/she shall automatically assume the office of Past-President and serve for one year. The Past-President may not run for the office of Vice-President-Elect until at least one year after completing his/her term.

9. It is strongly encouraged that the succession of the Presidency shall rotate through the five fields/disciplines to be accomplished by the election of a Vice-President-Elect from a specific field/discipline. The order of rotation is chemistry, biology, medicine, physics, and epidemiology; the order of rotation is maintained regardless of whether a candidate from the scheduled discipline is elected in a specific year.

*Ineligible to be nominated this year: David Kirsch
This year, the rotation is for a Medicine candidate.*

Councilors (3-Year Term)

Per the Constitution (Article IV.4),

4. ... The fields/disciplines of biology, chemistry, epidemiology, medicine, and physics shall be represented on the Council each by one Councilor from that field/discipline, elected expressly for this purpose by eligible members in the same field/discipline, as described in Article III.9. The remaining five Councilors shall be elected by the entire eligible membership to represent the membership at large. Each Councilor shall be elected for a three-year term. No councilor completing a three-year term shall be elected or appointed as a Councilor until at least one year after the completion of the term.

Ineligible to be nominated this year: Amitava Adhikary, Richard Britten, Jan Schuemann, Julie Schwarz, Rebecca Abergel
