

RRS Programs Code of Conduct

RRS is committed to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment for all meeting participants and RRS staff. All participants, including, but not limited to, attendees, speakers, volunteers, exhibitors, RRS staff members, service providers, and all others are expected to abide by this Programs Code of Conduct. This Policy applies to all RRS meeting-related events, including those sponsored by organizations other than RRS but held in conjunction with RRS events, on public or private platforms.

RRS has zero-tolerance for any form of discrimination or harassment, including but not limited to sexual harassment by participants or our staff at our meetings. If you experience harassment or hear of any incidents of unacceptable behavior, RRS asks that you contact the staff at the Registration Desk, and your concerns will be relayed to the president of the Radiation Research Society.

Unacceptable Behavior is defined as:

- Harassment, intimidation, or discrimination in any form.
- Verbal abuse of any attendee, speaker, volunteer, exhibitor, RRS staff member, service provider, or other meeting guest.
- Examples of verbal abuse include, but are not limited to, verbal comments related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion, national origin, inappropriate use of nudity and/or sexual images in public spaces or in presentations, or threatening or stalking any attendee, speaker, volunteer, exhibitor, RRS staff member, service provider, or other meeting guest.
- Disruption of presentations during sessions, in the exhibit hall, or at other events organized by RRS throughout the meeting. All participants must comply with the instructions of the moderator and any RRS event staff.
- Presentations, postings, and messages should not contain promotional materials, special offers, job offers, product announcements, or solicitation for services. RRS reserves the right to remove such messages and potentially ban sources of those solicitations.
- Participants should not record or photograph any presenter's materials or content on display at an RRS event, as this is a violation of copyright law.

RRS reserves the right to take any action deemed necessary and appropriate, including immediate removal from the meeting without warning or refund, in response to any incident of unacceptable behavior, and RRS reserves the right to prohibit attendance at any future meeting, virtually or in person.
